Council President Ben Hueso Names Director of Legislative Affairs

SAN DIEGO – Council President Ben Hueso has appointed Keely Halsey as Director of Legislative Affairs responsible for scheduling items for consideration by the City Council. She is also serving as the Council President’s advisor on City land use and housing policy.

Halsey’s experience as a Policy Analyst dealing with land use, environmental policy, natural resource management, and elections, ethics, and intergovernmental matters will serve her well in her new role. “I am delighted to welcome Keely to the team,” said Hueso. “She is smart, professional, and fair. Because she has relevant experience, Keely will acclimate easily and quickly.”

Halsey earned her undergraduate degree from Georgetown University and her law degree from the University of San Diego. She is an active member of the California State Bar.
